IKE BUSY WITH 400 BILLS AT FARM; AT LOCAL CHURCH SUNDAY

All was quiet today on the news front at the Eisenhower farm where the President and Mrs. Eisenhower are spending the longest time there since the remodeled and enlarged farmhouse was completed several months ago.

The President is not expected to return to the White House until Thursday. Then he will go to Denver for a brief fishing vacation returning east later this month to address the American Bar Association. Mrs. Eisenhower will remain at the farm until that address and then return to Denver with the President for a prolonged vacation.

There was no news from the farm from the time the President returned there after playing 18 holes of golf Saturday morning. Sunday morning he attended services at the Presbyterian Church with Major Walter Tkach, assistant White House physician.

400 Bills For Study
When the President flew to Gettysburg Friday he took with him a batch of Congressional bills which he planned to study and pass on this week at the farm. He apparently was working on these measures today. He will have to pass on approximately 400 bills.

Sunday morning's services were conducted by a former minister of the church, the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, who now is field director of Christian Education for the Presbytery of Pittsburgh.

In his sermon the minister asked the congregation to picture, as on a television screen, the history of Christianity from the time of Christ to this quiet Sunday in the church where Abraham Lincoln once worshipped.

Traces Church History
He spoke sorrowfully of periods in Christian history such as those he said, when Pope Leo X engaged in "the lucrative sale of indulgences" and when the papacy became "more interested in power" than in sanctity.

There came a time, he went on, when the Pilgrim Fathers fled in tolerance of fellow Protestants in Europe and established freedom in this country.

Today, he declared, Christian education is taking great steps forward and "people are committing their lives in a real way to Jesus Christ."

The President, following his custom, stood with the minister on the front steps of the church after the service and thanked him for the sermon.

The President wore a blue summer suit, but no hat. Mrs. Eisenhower remained at the farm.

A member of the White House staff was expected to fly mail and bills from the White House to the farm today.

The President is reported to have told a church official here that he wouldn't be able to attend services next Sunday because he planned to leave for Denver that day.

SHOWERS OVER WEEKEND SNAP LONG HEAT WAVE

Thundershowers Saturday and Sunday afternoons brought relief from one of the longest and hottest heat waves this section has experienced in years.

Gettysburg got only a "trace" of rain on Saturday afternoon while some sections received heavy showers but on Sunday about 4:30 p.m. a total of 0.81 inches fell here and sent the mercury tumbling to 66 degrees, its lowest point since the morning of July 31.

The prolonged heat wave had sent the temperature here above 90 22 days last month and seven straight days in August. The 100-degree mark was topped two days last week. Saturday's high was 98 and before the rains Sunday it had reached a sultry 92 degrees.

The Arendtsville weather station reported a total of 0.65 inches for the weekend—15 on Saturday and 50 on Sunday.

MCALISTER, Okla. (AP)—Defense attorneys for Dr. Ben T. Galbraith, heart specialist who is charged with the murder of his wife and three small children, today asked for a 30-day continuance in his trial following a suicide attempt by the doctor yesterday.

The 34-year-old doctor appeared in Pittsburg County District Court with both wrists bandaged under a long-sleeved shirt. He had slashed his wrists in his jail cell, the fourth attempt he has made to take his life since his family was killed and his home burned March 17.

Galbraith's trial for the death of his wife was scheduled to open today.

His attorneys contended he could not safely proceed to an immediate trial. They said he is not able to leave his hospital bed and is insane.

District Judge W. A. Lacey called Rudolph Meyers, the jailer who found him in his blood-spattered cell for testimony on Galbraith's condition. Also called were Bill Folsom, photographer for the McAlester News-Capital, and two physicians who treated him, Dr. C. K. Holland and Dr. Floyd T. Bartheld.

Baumer said he "read a little" every day until he had finished the Bible.

US-Red China Repatriation Talks Tangle On Procedure

By MAX HARRELSON

GENEVA (AP)—The United States and Red China were reported bogged down today over procedure on the proposed repatriation of civilian nationals of the two countries.

After a meeting of almost 2½ hours, Ambassadors U. Alexis Johnson and Wang Ping-nan called another 48-hour recess without announcing any progress.

The discussions up to now have been confined to the problem of releasing 40 American civilians held by the Peiping regime and repatriating an indefinite number of Chinese students the Chinese Communists declare are being detained in the United States.

Talks Will Take Time

"The discussions will take some time," a Chinese Communist source said.

This source indicated the talks were tied up on two main points: 1. A Chinese Communist demand for a list of Chinese Nationals living in the United States. It was understood Wang has not spelled out whether this covered only students or all persons of Chinese descent.

India As Representative

2. A Chinese Communist demand that India be permitted to act as a third party in representing the interests of the Peiping regime on the question of civilian repatriation.

The United States was understood to be insisting that no Chinese were being detained against (Continued on Page 3)

CHANDLER WIN APPEARS SURE IN CLOSE RACE

By MALCOLM PATTERSON
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A. B. (Happy) Chandler, the former baseball commissioner, today appeared the winner of his primary election test in his bid to be Kentucky's governor again.

The 57-year-old Chandler built a 15,596 lead over Bert T. Combs, 43-year-old mountaineer judge, for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Their race was among the hottest in Kentucky political history.

Chandler, 1935-39 governor and 1939-45 U.S. senator, came back home seeking the executive post after losing the baseball job in 1951.

Fought Organization
He ran against powerful party forces: the regular state organizations, rounding out its eighth year in office; U.S. Sen. Earle C. Clements, acting Senate majority leader; Gov. Lawrence Wetherby; and Sen. Alben W. Barkley, former vice president.

Returns from 1,955 of 4,074 precincts in Saturday's primary gave: Chandler, 146,961; Combs, 131,365; Jesse N. R. Cecil, 2,479.

At this stage, the Louisville Courier-Journal, which supported Combs, said flatly that Chandler and his running mate for the lieutenant governor's nomination, Harry Lee Waterfield, former Kentucky House speaker, had won. Combs commented, "It's a horse race, but I feel we still have a chance."

Counting of long ballots, with numerous state and district candidates, resumed today after being halted by state law Saturday midnight. This traditionally Democratic state normally elects a Democratic governor.

An apparently unbeatable lead was amassed by former U.S. Dist. Atty. Edwin R. Denney for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Returns from 1,558 precincts gave: Denney, 29,492; James L. Clay, an attorney, 7,989.

AEC SETS PRICE ON HEAVY WATER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission today set prices for uranium and heavy water leased and sold in the government's program to develop peaceful uses of atomic energy around the world.

The announcement said the schedule of values "should be of assistance to those nations planning to use research reactors as part of their program for designing uses of the atom."

AEC said it also was making public the leasing and sales prices at the United Nations' atomic conference in Geneva.

The value established for lease of uranium enriched to 20 per cent in U235 for research reactors under States and friendly nations is $25 per gram of contained U235.

Sales prices announced were $28 per pound of heavy water and $40 per kilogram of normal uranium metal. A kilogram is equal to 2,204.6 pounds.

Heavy water is used as a moderator and coolant in certain types of research reactors. It enables the reactor system to make sufficient use of neutrons.

LAUDS "TOUGH" LIQUOR POLICY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Study, Inc., has commended the State Liquor Control Board for the board's "get tough" policy on liquor law violations.

In a recent announcement the liquor board said that "licensees who commit violations of a serious nature, and this especially includes sales to minors and other charges dealing with persons under 21 years of age, and lewd shows, must serve their entire suspension period by closing their establishments, and can expect no offers in compromise."

W. W. Keen Butcher, president of the study group, made his organization's views known to the Liquor Board Aug. 4 in a letter made public yesterday.

New Control Era
Butcher said the board's refusing offers in compromise of suspensions "forecasts a new era in liquor control in Pennsylvania." "Such a policy," he added, "is a sharp departure from the policy with respect to offers in compromise followed by your predecessors on the board over a long period of years."

Around The Town

The Rev. Robert M. Hunt, former pastor of the local Presbyterian Church who returned to the local pulpit Sunday for the first time in seven years told the congregation that packed the church — and included President Eisenhower — that he and Mrs. Hunt had decided that they want to come back to Gettysburg to live at his retirement. There were understanding smiles when he added: "We seem to have made a good choice."

Several hundred persons stood outside the church and on nearby street corners during the service for a glimpse of the President as he left the church. Tourists stood their families in front of the steps or the battlefield marker in the churchyard, or more often beside the Eisenhower sedan for snapshots.

One visitor from Georgia stood patiently through the hour-long service to get a picture of Ike on the church steps and then the lens of his camera jammed at the crucial moment and all was lost. "I'm the kind of a guy," he lamented, "whose car would stall for him in the middle of a desert."

A busload of about 30 California schoolboys were in Gettysburg Sunday enroute from Washington, D. C., to Niagara Falls. A dozen of them attended the Presbyterian Church school and were told by their teacher that the President might be in church. They went to church and seemed to be thrilled with their proximity to the President.

"FOND FAREWELL"

I know that soon you'll leave my side . . . to hear the bugle call . . . and so I write this verse for you . . . to read when shadows fall . . . I won't be at the station when . . . the train takes you away . . . because the sight of fading love . . . floods my heart with dismay . . . remember as the distance spans . . . and we are far apart . . . that in reality I am . . . with you in your deepest heart . . . so close your eyes and think of me . . . and all the joys we knew . . . the glow of golden memories . . . will make the dark skies blue . . . keep faith my darling and we'll be . . . a little closer still . . . to that great day when all our plans . . . we'll tenderly fulfill . . . when you return I shall be there . . . my tear-dimmed eyes will tell . . . that we will never have to bid . . . another fond farewell.

On the question of India acting as representative for the Chinese Communists in the United States, the State Department policy is understood to be firmly set against any government representing the Peiping regime.

Issue Joint Statement
At the end of this morning's session, Johnson and Wang issued a joint statement "to correct misstatements, Johnson and Wang issued a joint statement "to correct misunderstandings which may exist concerning the present talks." The statement, however, threw little official light on the private meetings.

It confirmed that the talks so far had been confined to the matter of returning civilians to the two countries. It also announced that the two ambassadors have agreed to refrain from making any public statements concerning their discussions.

The next meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday.

No Official Progress
Although there was no official sign of progress toward the release of the civilians, the belief was still widespread that the talks would result eventually in their repatriation. Such agreement would permit the two diplomats to move on to the second item on their two-part agenda, other issues between their two governments.

Johnson and Wang resumed their talks after a four-day recess during which they consulted their governments. Their main problem appeared to be to find a formula which could resolve their differences over some 4,000 Chinese students who came to the United States after World War II. Peiping claims large numbers of these, perhaps thousands, want to return to the China mainland but are being detained by the United States.

Free To Leave
The United States contends that since April all Chinese in America have been free to leave. Thirty-five went home earlier this year and 40 others have been reported wanting to go. Secretary of State Dulles told his news conference last week there were no restrictions on their departure.

Wang in the talks last week was understood to have proposed that a neutral third power be allowed to act on behalf of Peiping in interviewing the Chinese students and arranging their repatriation.

Reliable sources said Johnson countered with the suggestion that Peiping furnish the names of any Chinese in the United States who want to go to Red China.

which broke the summer's longest and most intense heat wave over the weekend reached the Deep South today, and in parts of the North there was a touch of autumn.

The cooling mass of air which lowered temperatures as much as 14 to 20 degrees in the Central plains overspread the East and even the northern parts of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

It was a shivery 42 degrees at Grand Marais, Mich., early today, a drop of 20 degrees from a day earlier; and a more comfortable 54 at Wausau, Wis., 60 at Detroit and 66 at Des Moines.

Ahead of the cool air mass, however, were such early morning temperatures as 78 at New Orleans, 80 at Birmingham, Ala., and 85 at Fort Worth.

It was warming up again, however, on the plains and the weather continued hot in the interior sections of the Far West.

Scattered thundershowers moved ahead of the cool air, dumping occasionally heavy falls such as 2.32 inches at Newark, N.J., and 1.07 at Guymon, Okla.

Biglerville, and Yvonne Trostle, Highland Park, Gettysburg, each won $10 certificates. Mrs. James Orner, Cashtown, won a $5 certificate.

Ever Green Cemetery: The contract for building a Lodge and Gateway at the Cemetery was on Monday allotted to Messrs. G. & H. Christman. The building is to be commenced immediately. The Corner Stone will be laid on the 1st of September.

The ravages of grasshoppers and crickets in Salt Lake Valley are so great as to render very probable a famine among the Mormons during the coming winter. If the accounts are correct, a very large proportion of all kinds of crops will be cut off, and not near enough of anything left to feed the inhabitants. This will force them either to disperse before winter or starve when winter comes.

A New Party: There is to be a convention held at Pittsburgh on the 8th of September "for the purpose of organizing a Republican party in this State which shall give expression to the popular will on the subjects involved in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and co-operate with other organizations of a similar character in other States. The call is signed by George Darsie, Thaddeus Stevens and 12 others. A mass meeting of all parties, opposed to slavery, was held at Reading on the 8th, which called a state convention, to meet at Pittsburgh, on the 8th of September.

Messrs. James A. Thompson, George Swope, S. R. Russell, Geo. W. McClellan and Henry J. Stahlke were on the 4th inst. elected Managers of the Gettysburg Water Company for the year ensuing.

A movement is reported to be organizing in Texas for an invasion of Mexico. Federal troops on the border are instructed to prevent an invasion. Political Notes: The White House, Pa., Garfield and Arthur has twenty five Democrats enrolled on its list.

They had some township elections in Kentucky on Monday, and the reports show a half dozen shooting and stabbing affairs, with all the back counties not yet heard from. This is a healthy beginning for the more intense excitement of the November contest.

Today's Talk

THINK IT OUT!
There is always a way out in everything — perhaps many ways out — but the best is to think it out! And think it out yourself! Other people can only advise or suggest — and superficially at that. We and we alone know the background of all our worries, troubles or problems. They are ours. Let us ride them all into conquering territory!

All things pass, in time, and usually the way out is simpler than you realize. So, whatever you face, think it out. The people who win and conquer don't do so by having someone else do the job; they do it themselves. People with legs to stand on should use them for standing. There is nothing like winning alone and taking the credit oneself. This always results in greater independence and courage for another time.

Put the problem right in front of you. Look at it from every side. Measure the consequences that may result from any decision. Be unafraid. You have thought things out before — think them out again. Each time you think out a more difficult problem you get that much stronger and abler. Think it out!

The pioneers in every advance in our civilization thought things out. They took risks, however, and made no complaint. Some sacrificed themselves, but others took the cue and carried on. History is the story of the heroic ones — people who thought things out and then went forward — win, lose or draw! To go forward and win you have to have spirit. Every successful man or woman has to have it.

In every baseball game, as it goes on, it is thought out — often several moves ahead. Chances are taken intelligently. It's the same in every enterprise — somebody has to think things out and that somebody is usually the one who long before started to think things out for himself! What makes all successful careers interesting is that so many decisions have to be made. The greatest credit, however, goes to the one who thinks them all out!

There is a space of years to cross Promotion to enjoy.
You can't expect to be the boss Until you've been the boss.
It's at the start that others see Just how you do your work.
So don't expect the boss to be Until you've been the clerk.

They'll place you where you're needed most
And grant the higher pay,
But don't expect the topmost post
Until you've earned the way.
It's step by step you have to go
From clerk to job ahead.
By what you've done and what you know
Your future will be read.

From boyhood on the years will run
And change this no one can.
From all an eager youth has done
They learn to trust the man.
Although to be a boss you mean,
Success evades the shirk.
'Twill pass you by unless you've been Successful as a clerk.

US DEALS WITH CHINA WITHOUT RECOGNITION

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States treats Red China as a ghost that casts a shadow. It does not concede Communist China legally exists. But it deals with the Red Chinese.

This country refuses to recognize the Communists as the lawful rulers of mainland China although they have governed its almost 600 million people ever since running Chiang Kai-shek off the mainland to Formosa more than five years ago.

But an American ambassador and a Red Chinese ambassador are discussing in Geneva now the release of their nationals from each other's country. They may discuss more than that.

Doesn't Imply Recognition
Meanwhile, Secretary of State Dulles, who says the Geneva meeting doesn't imply recognition of the Red regime, is having an intercontinental debate with Chou En-lai, Red Chinese premier and foreign minister.

Each is talking directly to the other but not officially so—each is making public statements intended for the other's ears—to find out what the other is willing or likely to yield.

In the end Dulles and Chou may meet too. Since both insist they want peace in Asia, each would have to convince the other by concessions. One thing the Red Chinese want is a seat in the United Nations. The United States has blocked that, with help from other countries.

The United States might no longer want to block it if Chou gave sufficient peaceful guarantees, including an agreement not to attack America's ally on Formosa, Chiang, who claims to be the lawful ruler of mainland China.

Once Red China was in the U.N., the United States could hardly continue to withhold recognition. Yet, if it recognized Red China, it would be recognizing two Chinas: one on the mainland, one on Formosa.

That would in effect mean condemning Chiang to die of old age on his island. It would be American agreement that Chiang no longer had any legal claim to the mainland. Therefore, he could not expect American support for an invasion.

Chiang Bottled Up
An invasion by Chiang, which couldn't be done without full American support, is academic anyway. The Eisenhower administration, which once talked of unleashing him, long ago changed its mind and has him solidly bottled up on Formosa.

But recognition and a U.N. seat for Red China won't come overnight. Last week President Eisenhower said this country's position on Red China—nonrecognition and opposition to U.N. membership—hasn't changed.

The United States has forces in South Korea, and as long as American troops are in the South, Red China is pretty sure to keep troops in the North.

Over the weekend a story came out of the State Department to this effect: that top U.S. policy makers are considering withdrawing American forces from South Korea to Japan. Perhaps this was a hint to the Red Chinese to do the same and thereby prove their peaceful intentions and get rid of the U.N. tag of aggressor.

STRIKE CALLED TO PROTEST JOB STUDY BY FIRM

PITTSBURGH (AP) A strike was called today by some 2,200 day-shift workers at the Westinghouse Electric Corp.'s huge East Pittsburgh plant to protest a job study by the company.

The workers, members of local 601, CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, cast the strike vote yesterday. Local president Pat O'Connor said only five dissenting votes were cast.

Union plans called for no picketing, but O'Connor said the walkout would halt production on all other shifts at the plant which employs about 9,000. Some 800 entered the plant this morning.

The dispute began last week when 144 production workers in the switch gear division were given one-day disciplinary furloughs for walking off the job in protest against the job study.

Charged Violation

R. W. Gray, industrial relations manager for the company's East Pittsburgh division, charges the union violated its contract.

In a statement issued Saturday, Gray said:

AIRMAN'S WIFE AWAITS RETURN BEFORE ACTION

NEVADA CITY, Calif. (AP)

Una Schmidt-Fine took her little boy and moved off by herself today, trying to decide whether she wants to remain the wife of a returning prisoner of war or of a logging tractor driver.

Una, a slightly built brown-haired woman of 20, says she married logger Alford B. Fine in the belief that A/C Daniel C. Schmidt was dead. He and 10 others in a B29 were shot down Jan. 12, 1953, during the Korean War.

Una talked by telephone yesterday with Schmidt, who is in Tokyo on his way back to America after 32 months in a Red Chinese prison. After the call, her attorney Harold Berliner said she had separated—at least temporarily—from the logger.

Morale Improved
Just what she and Schmidt talked about was not made public. Berliner did say:

"Una and Al believe it is best for all concerned that they live separate and apart until such time as their problems are solved. In fairness to Airman Schmidt, there will be no further announcement until he returns and has had an opportunity to discuss the entire matter."

At Tokyo, a Red Cross official said Schmidt came out of the telephone booth with his "morale improved."

Wants Talk First

The airman said he would not discuss his tangled marital affairs until he had a chance to talk with Una face to face "and work out this personal problem with those intimately concerned."

He has never seen his 2½-year-old son Danny. The youngster was born after Schmidt went to the Orient. Fine said the child now calls him "Daddy."

At Portland, Ore., Mrs. Nellie Peters, mother of the airman, talked to her son Saturday night and said he "sounded very hurt." But she said he indicated he would try to win back Una. Fine has said he hopes she will stay with him.

Letters Sent To Wife
Mrs. Peters quoted Schmidt as asking her, "Didn't she get my letters, Mom?"

"I could only tell him I didn't know," the mother said. "I do know I sent several of them on to California—there were even pictures in some—it said so on the outside."

Una says she married Fine last September and heard the following November that Schmidt was alive in a Red China prison. She

HOPE BOSTON POLIO WANES

BOSTON (AP)—Health authorities expressed hope today that Boston's polio has passed its peak.

Edward J. Dailey, administrator at Haynes Memorial Hospital, said that only two of 26 polio cases admitted at Haynes in the last three days are Boston residents.

"It looks like it is beginning to shift outside the city," Dailey said. Twelve new cases of polio were reported in Boston, bringing the city's count for the year to 324. Two deaths—an 8-month-old Boston girl and a 30-year-old Wayland wife—raised the city's death list to 24.

No state by state totals were announced yesterday. The last count on Saturday gave these totals, with comparative figures for the corresponding period of 1954:

Massachusetts, 734-68; Connecticut, 108-92; New Hampshire, 42-14; Rhode Island, 41-12; Vermont, 16-6; Maine, 24-9; six state totals, 1,017-221.

and Schmidt had lived together only a few weeks before he left for the Far East.

Weatherman Helps Tighten Race In American League; Brooklyn Beaten While Braves Take Pair

The Associated Press

How about a five-team playoff for the American League pennant? It sounds fantastic but the pot is boiling up a real fine stew for President Will Harridge.

Under the American League system, it's sudden death, a one-game playoff, in case of a tie. But that takes care of only two clubs. With seven weeks to go, only 11 1/2 games separate the top four clubs. Detroit in fifth place is only 5 1/2 back.

The weatherman helped tighten the screws yesterday, forcing Chicago to settle for a 2-2 tie in 12 innings at Baltimore and watching out a scheduled second game. Rain also postponed a second game at Washington after the Senators had bopped the Cleveland Indians again 9-3.

Yankees Get Split
Mickey Mantle's 10th-inning home run, his 26th of the season and second of the game, gave New York a split with Detroit and sole possession of second place, three percentage points behind Chicago. Detroit shaded New York in the opener 4-2 but Mantle's clout added up to a 3-2 Yankee victory in the second behind Bob Turley.

The fast-moving Boston Red Sox outlasted Kansas City in a wild fray 16-12, hammering four pitchers for 19 hits and 31 total bases. Despite the victory, the Red Sox lost the series to the A's, the first set they had dropped since they bowed to Cleveland July 16-17.

Braves Take Pair
In the National League, Milwaukee won a pair from Pittsburgh 6-3 and 4-2 while New York split two at Cincinnati, losing 8-5 and winning 6-5. As a result the Braves have a two-game edge on the Giants in their second-place battle. The Braves are 14 1/2 games back of Brooklyn, which bowed to Chicago 4-3. Philadelphia trampled St. Louis 9-6 in the other game.

Chicago had Jim Busby on second base with two out in the 13th when rain made further play impossible at Baltimore. All individual records go into the book but the game must be replayed next month as well as the postponed second game.

Dave Pope's two-run homer in the fourth gave last-place Baltimore its runs after George Kell homered for the Sox in the first. Chicago tied it up in the eighth on Nellie Fox's triple and Kell's single.

Schmitt Stars
Washington rode to its fourth straight on Johnny Schmitt's pitching and hitting. The veteran lefty went the route with a 10-hitter and came through with two doubles. Early Wynn was the loser.

Mantle's two homers saved the Yanks from dropping a full game behind Chicago. After Al Kaline's two-run single tied the score in the eighth, Mantle hit a 1-1 pitch by reliever Babe Bitter into the upper stands in right field for the ball game. He hit his first homer off starter Frank Lary in the first inning.

Detroit won the opener in the seventh on successive doubles by Kaline and Jack Phillips and Ray Boone's triple that knocked out Tommy Byrne. Steve Gromek was the winner despite home runs by Eddie Robinson and pinch hitter Bob Cerv.

Dramatic Ending
Norm Zauchin, Sammy White and Billy Klaus each belted three hits for the Red Sox in their free-hitting afternoon. After Boston scored six runs in the eighth to wrap it up, the A's came back with five in the ninth.

The Dodgers were beaten at Chicago by Gene Baker's single in the sixth, following Dee Fondy's double. Warren Hacker, fourth Cub pitcher, ended the game in dramatic fashion by throwing just three pitches. He came in to face Don Zimmer with the bases loaded and a 2-0 count on the batter. He struck him out on three pitches.

Hank Aaron's two-run homer helped Milwaukee whip Pittsburgh in the first game after the Braves had knocked out Vernon Law to score four runs in the first inning. Bob Buhl went the route in the second game for his ninth victory.

35th For Willie
Willie Mays hit his 35th home run for the Giants, the 106th of his career, in the first game but Cincinnati won it with homers by Wally Post and relief pitcher Hershel Freeman. Mays' sacrifice fly scored Joe Amalfitano with the winning run in the ninth inning of the second game, in which the Giants hit four homers, two by Gail Harris.

Richie Ashburn connected with a double that drove in two vital runs in the eighth inning of the Phillies' triumph over St. Louis. Robin Roberts required relief help to win his 18th. Eddie Waikus of the Phils homered.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Carmen Basilio, the welterweight king, returns to action Wednesday night at Madison Square Garden in a non-title bout with Italo Scortichini.

Inactive for two months since he won his title by stopping Tony DeMarco at Syracuse, the 28-year-old Basilio meets Scortichini for the third time in their 10-round match (radio and TV-ABC).

Basilio and Scortichini fought a draw at Miami, Fla., Jan. 16, 1954, and Basilio won a unanimous decision four months later.

Tiny Camarero Wins 55th Race

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Camarero, a shrimp as race horses go, may never break any speed record, but he went down in turf record books today as the winningest thoroughbred ever.

Standing only 14 hands and weighing 150 pounds, the 4-year-old bay colt yesterday won his 55th straight race—he's never been defeated—to beat the record of 54 he held jointly with Kinseam, the great Hungarian filly of the 1870's.

There's no telling how many victories Camarero may run up because he certainly is the best in Puerto Rico. His owner, Juan Coll Vidal, a San Juan newspaperman, said he has no plans for racing Camarero outside Puerto Rico where competition is tougher.

Don Minnick, the Eastern League's leading hurler, seems to be slowing up.

After losing only one game in 18 starts, the Reading whiz now has dropped two in a row.

His latest loss was last night to the Elmira Pioneers 10-6. Elmira's Joe Gushan got credit for his tenth victory.

It was also the second straight loss for the Indians but this one was more costly than Saturday night's 10-5 defeat by the Pioneers.

On Saturday, the second-place Williamsport Grays obliged the leaders by losing 2-1 to the Allentown Redbirds. But last night the Grays downed the Redbirds 8-3.

Don Daniels held the Birds to seven hits and Johnnie Powers belted out two homers.

Rocky Tedesco's two homers accounted for four runs, as the Albany Senators defeated the Johnstown Johnnies 9-6. Binghamton's Pat Utley inched out a 4-2 victory over the Schenectady Blue Jays, after a ninth inning Jay rally spoiled a two-hit game for him.

In other games Saturday, Johnstown downed Albany 12-8 and Binghamton won over Schenectady 2-1.

DOUG FORD IS TAM O'SHANTER WINNER SUNDAY

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Four-year-old Mike straddled Doug Ford's shoulders and pounded tom-tom fashion on his head.

Ten-year-old Doug Jr. hung to his dad's hand, his eyes gleaming in hero worship.

The dad said: "I guess I'll go back to the trailer and do some baby sitting. I've got another, Pamela. But she's only 5 months old."

3rd On Money List

Doug Ford is the hottest pro golfer on the circuit right now. His check of $3,420 for winning the All-American tournament at Tam O'Shanter yesterday boosted his earnings for the season to $19,030 and gave him third place on the PGA money-winning list.

The 33-year-old Ford, winner of the national PGA crown two weeks ago, took the All-American prize with a final 70 for a 72-hole total of 277-11 under par.

Instead of the windup being a race for the title, it was more a retreat. While Ford breezed in with a 2-under 70, British Open champion Peter Thomson, the 54-hole leader, ballooned to 78 for 284 and seventh place.

Big One Thursday

Most of the other front runners also collapsed with the result that little-known Leo Biagetti, Willoughby, Ohio, took second with 70 for 280, and a four-way tie for third developed among Ted Kroll, Tony Holguin, Jimmy Demaret and Freddie Haas—each at 283.

"Of course the big one is yet to come," said Ford. "I mean the World Tournament (starting Thursday). I would settle right now for 274. If the weather remains good, I think it will take that to win."

The 72-hole grind in the World event pays the winner $50,000 in cash and guarantees $55,000 more for 55 exhibition matches.

Other divisions of the All-American came out this way:

Women's amateur—Wiffi Smith, St. Clair, Mich., 312.

Men's amateur—Doug Sanders, Cedartown, Ga., 286.

PREDICTS USE OF POWER FROM H-BOMB ENERGY

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

GENEVA (AP)—Indian scientist Homi J. Bhabha opened the first International Atomic Energy Conference today with the prediction that the way will be found to harness the titanic energy of the hydrogen bomb for peaceful use within 20 years.

Bhabha, president of the 72-nation scientific parley, said: "When that happens, the energy problems of the world will truly have been solved forever, for fuel will be as plentiful as heavy hydrogen in the oceans."

Bhabha spoke as hundreds of delegates gathered at the opening plenary session of the conference just 10 years and one day after the first atom bomb leveled Hiroshima.

The conference in the Palace of Nations, designed to parade atomic energy in its role as an ally of industry and a potential boon to agriculture and medicine, will continue until Aug. 20. The scientists will hear hundreds of papers on technical phases of peaceful use of atomic energy. Hundreds of other papers submitted for the conference will be published for study later.

Message From Eisenhower
The opening session also received a message from President Eisenhower, whose historic address before the U.N. General Assembly in December 1953 inspired the atom-for-peace program now being worked out by

Hurricane Connie, Larger, Still At Sea

MIAMI, Fla., (AP)—Hurricane Connie, larger in size than ever, but confining its 135 m.p.h. punch to the open seas, gave indications today of turning to a more northerly course.

It was centered roughly 400 miles off the east coast of Florida and about 300 miles east of Nassau, Bahamas, at 5 a.m., EST.

It was moving along a northwest path at a speed of 15 m.p.h., a course that would keep it east of the Bahamas where winds should be no stronger than gale force.

Storm forecasters say it is too early to tell whether the hurricane will strike the United States coastline.

The international organization and the present conference.

The President's message, brought by Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, reaffirmed America's pledge to "help find ways by which the miraculous inventiveness of man shall not be dedicated to his death, but consecrated to his life."

Recalling his address before the U.N., which is sponsoring the parley, Eisenhower declared: "The atom stands ready to become man's obedient, tireless servant, if man will only allow it."

The scientists also heard a message from U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, who said that "we have a long road ahead of us to traverse before nations can hope to eliminate the threat of atomic destruction."

Touching on possible peaceful uses of atomic energy, Bhabha, who heads India's atomic program in the field said it already has been shown that peacetime heating and electrical power can be tapped from the "fission" process of uranium such as is used in atomic bombs.

This is the process used in atomic power plants the United States and Britain are now building and in the 5,000-kilowatt station the Soviet Union says it has been operating for more than a year.

Major interest centered on the U.S. exhibit featuring an actual operating atomic reactor and on the Russian display, which included a motion picture of the reactor in the first Soviet atomic power station.

Soviet physicist Boris Baturov told reporters yesterday that this first power station could produce power at costs competitive with those of certain "small" power plants utilizing conventional fuels. The 5,000-kilowatt output is sufficient for a town of at least 10,000 people.

His navigator Capt. Elmer F. Llewellyn, Missoula, Mont., also denied the Red charges.

"We were never in their . . . damned China," Llewellyn shouted, his fists clenched, as he turned from a large map of Korea.

He had just pinpointed a spot on North Korea's west coast, 40 miles south of the Yalu River boundary, as the one where their B29 was downed in flames by combined MIG and anti-aircraft fire.

Other officers in the crew said they had signed statements similar to Arnold's. The enlisted men said they signed statements admitting that the plane may have come down in Red China's Manchuria.

Maj. William H. Baumer, Lewisburg, Pa., who was wounded before he bailed out and later suffered from frostbite and spent much time in the hospital, was the only one who did not sign a statement.

"They started after me but then eased off, probably because of my condition," he said.

Aside from Arnold's tense appearance and Baumer's injuries, the other men were in fairly good condition, Air Force doctors said.

Reader Proposes New Tax Bill With Both Sales-Income Revenue Features

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Albert S. Reader, House Democratic floor leader, today proposed both an income and sales tax to solve the commonwealth's fiscal deadlock.

"The Republicans want a sales tax; we want an income tax," he told a newsmen. "Why not compromise and use revenue from both types of taxes?"

He said he will carry the idea to a compromise tax conference fixed for Wednesday among Gov. Leader and Republican and Democratic legislative leaders.

Must Sell Plan
Reader conceded that one of his first major problems will be to sell the plan to the governor who is committed to permitting the present 1 per cent sales levy expire Aug. 31 and vetoing any extension.

And Republicans, he said, will have to give somewhat on their opposition to an income tax.

Leader's 411 million dollar classified income tax was killed—without any possibility of recall—by the GOP-controlled Senate last week.

Other Tax Suggested
"There's nothing to stop Republicans from supporting another form of income tax," Reader said.

He suggested an income tax bill with only two classifications—one on earned income such as wages and salaries and the other on unearned income such as dividends, capitals gains, interest, rents and royalties.

The rate on unearned income, Reader explained, should be double that of the other category.

Different Rates
Although Reader mentioned rates of one-half of one per cent on earned income and a full one per cent on unearned income revenue estimates from these would amount to only 170 millions. At 1 and 2 per cent, respectively, the revenue would be 340 millions in two years.

It was also the Democratic leader's idea to continue the 1 per cent sales tax with stiffened collection procedures put into the law.

Reader, in contrast with a weekend statement by Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Senate president pro tempore, stood by the governor's estimate of a half billion dollars needed in new taxes.

Must Cut Budget
Taylor said the Leader budget must be cut by 220 million dollars before a tax compromise can be reached.

Meanwhile, Sen. Rowland B. Matany, Senate Republican floor leader, said it would be "premature" to suggest any tax program until there is a compromise figure decided upon as to budget needs.

RAIN, COOL AIR SMASH HEAT WAVE IN STATE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cool air in the wake of welcome rains fanned across Pennsylvania today, breaking a month-long heat wave.

The rain, up to a half inch at some places, provided relief to parched crops and dampened the woodlands, scene of scattered forest fires during the prolonged drought.

A cool air mass from Canada

Mahany and Republican colleagues called a meeting during the day to start work in preparing a Republican-type budget. The governor himself has asked for $1,800,000,000.

Wants GOP Ideas
In another development, Leader called on Republicans to come up with their ideas on ending the state's financial woes, declaring:

"We cannot operate the government on political conversation."

The Senate is in recess today in deference to the death last Friday of Sen. Patrick J. Toole (D-Luzerne). Toole's funeral is tomorrow with many of his Senate colleagues expected to attend.

The upper branch returns for a one-day session tomorrow to pass the House-approved boxing code. It will then recess until Aug. 29—the same date the House returns to Harrisburg.

filtered southward across the western and northern sections of the state, tumbling temperatures to comfortable 70's.

The weather bureau said the cool air mass continued to move to the southeastern area and appeared likely to dominate the Pennsylvania weather through Tuesday.

The rain came in the form of showers and thundershowers, giving a number of areas their first appreciable rainfall in several weeks.

Cool Across State

Sunday temperatures over the northwest area were in the low 80's, but elsewhere in the state were in the upper 80's and low 90's with high humidity.

"Last night," the weather bureau said, "the cooler drier air began spreading across Pennsylvania from the northwest and north with temperatures this morning in the 50's in the northwestern mountains and in the 60's, except under the cloudy skies in the southeastern quarter of the state."

"There are still scattered showers occurring in the extreme south east portion of the state but these will be ending shortly with the cloudiness breaking up during the morning."

By afternoon, the bureau said, the entire state should be enjoying much sunshine, lower temperatures than yesterday and lower humidity.

For the central and northeastern area, the temperature will range from 75 degrees in the northwest portion to 85 in the extreme southeast portion.

The most distinguishing feature of "The Aloha" is the full length picture window in the front wall of the living room. This window adds much decorative appeal to both the exterior and interior of the modern, one-story house offered today by the Home of the Week Plan Service.

Low slung architectural lines seem to tie this home to the ground. The sloping roof contributes to the overall impression that this charming house hugs the ground and thus it adds to the comfortably homey charm to which "The Aloha" owes so much of its appeal.

Measuring 57'x28', "The Aloha" has a cubage of 32,500 feet. At least an 80-foot lot would be required to build this house. Simple uncluttered landscaping will bring out the best architectural features of "The Aloha."

WIDOW AWAITS HER P.O.W. SON IN LEWISBURG

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Hurley L. Baumer Saturday looked in happy anticipation to a meeting with her Air Force son whom she has not seen in 2½ years.

The Lewisburg widow said she hoped to make a trip to San Francisco within the next few days to greet Maj. William H. Baumer when he arrives there from the Far East.

Baumer was one of 11 American airmen released by the Chinese Communists after a 30-month imprisonment. He walked to freedom on crutches.

Mrs. Baumer said yesterday she learned her son suffered a "partial amputation" of his left foot while a prisoner.

Partially Crippled
"But I'm happy that he will be home soon," she said. "At least we know that his brain has not been injured and that is most important."

Mrs. Baumer said Col. R. W. Springham, Washington, D.C., informed her that her son had suffered a "partial amputation" of his left foot and had lost some fingers on both hands.

"But a partial amputation can mean that only his toes are off, and we already know that," she declared.

She had also previously learned that some of her son's fingers had been amputated—but from one hand only.

The Central Pennsylvania woman said she believed it was her son's sense of humor and strong religious faith that enabled him to endure the years of captivity.

that can be used as a den, bedroom or guest room provide the family that lives in this cozy home with plenty of sleeping space. These three rooms are located in the right wing of the house; the bathroom is conveniently near to these rooms.

Good lighting and ventilation, and generous closet storage space are provided in each of the sleeping rooms, including the optional one. Either of the regular bedrooms can be used as the master bedroom.

The extra closet space in "The Aloha" is certain to please any housewife. You can give added practical value to the double closets, located across the hall from the linen closet, by having them lined with cedar. You can, of course, have the double closet area made into one large closet if this arrangement will better suit your needs.

While there is no breakfast nook in "The Aloha" the dining room adjoins the kitchen. Therefore, the housewife will easily be able to serve all the family's meals in this pleasant room. The kitchen itself is strictly a work center with appliances, and working counters lining both front and back walls of the room. You can keep all of your cleaning equipment in the spacious broom closet.

Since the laundry is located on the ground floor of "The Aloha" the only required installation in the basement will be the heating equipment. This should be placed under the living room.

POPE PIUS ASKS EASTERN RITE TO END SCHISM

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII has appealed to the eastern rite churches to reunite with the Roman Catholic Church after centuries of schism. This was viewed as a plea to the orthodox churches, including the Russian, which do not recognize the Pope.

The Pope sent a letter on Friday to Archimandrite Isidore Croce, abbot of the monastery of Santa Maria Grottaferrata outside Rome. It is the seat of an eastern rite branch which still recognizes the Pope.

The Pope's letter, commemorating the ninth centennial of St. Bartholomew Junior, an early abbot of the monastery, said:

"Preventions have all to long kept apart from the (Roman Catholic) church so many of her sons. Can we not with divine aid finally yield to the truth in reality the people of the east have nothing to fear from a reunion with the Roman church—the greatly desired and necessary return to her.

No Splendor Lost
"Absolutely nothing would be taken away from the divinity and splendor of their holy rites nor from the sacred heritage given them by their fathers. To the contrary, they would gain much in protection and glory."

A spokesman at the monastery regarded the plea as directed to the orthodox churches which have about 128 million members in Russia, Greece, the Balkans, and Asia Minor. The Roman Catholic Church has more than 400 million members.

The eastern and western churches drifted apart over many centuries for various reasons, including geographic separation, language differences, and disputes on doctrinal and jurisdictional matters including the supremacy of the Pope. The final breach is generally given as 1472, when the east repudiated terms drawn up at the Council of Florence for reunion.

Use Shaded Seedbed For Summer-Sown Perennials

The practice of sowing perennial flower seeds in summer is an old one, and not well suited to areas where hot, dry weather prevails. But with a cold frame to carry them over winter, and a lath canopy to protect the seeds and seedlings, until they get started, it can be done.

It is important that as much time as possible be allowed to mature sturdy plants before cold weather stops their growth.

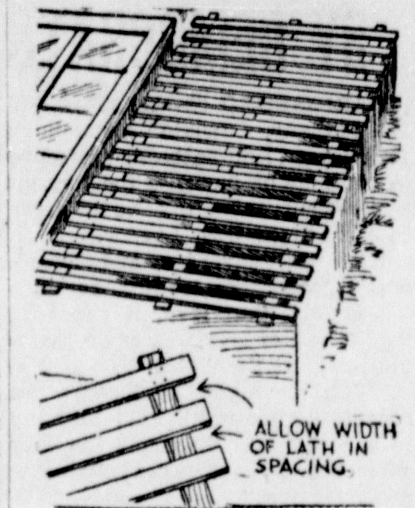

Perennials should be started in special seedbeds for several reasons. Since most will not bloom until next year, they are seldom moved to the garden until fall. In a seedbed they can be given the extra care which is required to obtain maximum germination and carry the seedling plants through the hazards of youth.

Select a position where the tiny plants will not be subject to the noon-day sun or to the drive of heavy rains. The north side of a fence or hedge is preferable to a location under trees where the drip from the trees in heavy rains may wash little plants out of existence.

Even in summer a cold frame is the safest with a lath cover to give shade.

The time which perennials take to germinate will depend upon variety, but the average take longer than annuals. It will help to look up the germinating time of each variety you sow, and place the quick growers near each other, and the slower ones by themselves. Cover the seeds lightly with special porous soil and keep it moist until the sprouts appear.

A handy method of doing this is to cover the seedbed after sowing with burlap which has been soaked and wrung out. Then the bed may be watered through the burlap until germination starts without danger of washing the seeds out. When the first seeds start to break the soil the covering of burlap must be removed.

Now is the time to guard against heavy rains as one cloudburst can destroy an entire seedbed. A tried scheme is to place window screens over the bed. The wire mesh breaks the force of driving rains but admits light until the seedlings are large enough to fend for themselves.

As soon as the plants are large enough to handle they may be transplanted from the seedbed to a nursery row where they will have more room to grow until the time has come to set them in their allotted places in the garden border.

STOLEN CHECKS WORTH $15,000 FLOOD ALBANY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A smartly dressed man has cashed more than $15,000 worth of stolen American Express Co. travelers' checks in the Albany area, the FBI said on Friday.

The blank checks were among $20,000 worth taken from the Tradesmen's Bank & Trust Co. in Philadelphia July 29.

The man converted the negotiable checks in Albany, Troy and Schenectady Monday before the serial numbers of the checks had been ascertained and circulars sent to banking institutions.

He used a different name at each bank.

FBI Works Case
Travelers' checks have two signature lines. The purchaser signs one line when he buys the checks so that his signature can be checked when he cashes them.

Edward Soucy, agent in charge of the FBI office here, said his staff was working on the case but he declined to give details. In Philadelphia, FBI Agent Norman McCabe said he had been informed that more than $15,000 worth of the checks had been cashed in the Albany area Aug. 1.

Miss Barbara McGill, 27, a clerk in the Philadelphia bank's foreign department, told authorities she had placed the 300 checks behind her pocketbook on a five-foot-high counter inside the cage. A partition 18 inches high separates the inside from the customers.

In Two Bundles
They were in two bundles, 200 for $50 and 100 for $100, tied together.

Miss McGill said she was busy and did not follow her practice of counting the checks immediately and placing them in a strongbox on the floor of the cage. She went back and forth from the window handling other work.

When the rush subsided she said, she returned to attend to the checks and found they were gone. Fifteen other clerks were working in the cage with her but none could explain the checks' disappearance.

No Bank Loss
The checks cashed here were sent Monday night to a New York City clearing house where they were recognized as among those stolen.

An American Express spokesman said the local banks would suffer no loss on the transactions because the checks were negotiable.

WALTER WANTS SUBVERSIVE TAG FOR RED GROUP

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) has announced he will ask Atty. Gen. Brownell to list as subversive the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenbergs Case.

Such a listing would not affect the now-disbanded organization, but would hinder government employment of those connected with it.

Walter spoke to newsmen after his House Un-American Activities Committee ended four days of hearings on the Communists' role in the campaign to save the lives of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg.

Quiz 21 Witnesses
The Rosenbergs were executed as atomic spies in June, 1953, after a long legal battle that attracted international attention.

The House committee quizzed 21 witnesses about Communist activity in behalf of the Rosenbergs. Four former FBI undercover men told of Red drives for the convicted pair in Boston, Mass., eastern Pennsylvania, Detroit, Mich., and Chicago, Ill., through local save-the-Rosenbergs committees or otherwise.

The national committee, with headquarters in New York City, went out of business in the fall of 1953.

Harvard Ph.D. Called
Walter said the hearings showed the Communists used the Rosenbergs case as a vehicle for Red propaganda and to raise funds for their own gain—not that of the Rosenbergs.

Louis Harap, who said he had a Ph.D. degree from Harvard but wouldn't answer as to whether he

Get $5,000 Payroll In Daylight Holdup

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two gunmen wearing sun glasses lifted a $5,000 payroll in a daring daylight raid on Friday at the Dorco Knitting Mills.

Charles Steiger, vice president of the firm, told police he was forced at gunpoint to hand over the pay envelopes and then he and two employees were tied up allowing the robbers to flee unmolested.

Harap said he had helped sign a bank account application for the committee in 1952 but "I never acted as president, I never even considered myself as president."

Only Vacant Space
Then why did he sign in the space marked "president," Harap was asked.

"That," said Harap, "was the only blank that was vacant and not signed by somebody else."

Committee investigators identified Harap as managing editor of Jewish Life, a magazine published in New York. Harap himself wouldn't say.

Harap, like 16 other witnesses, invoked the Fifth Amendment's guarantee against forced self-incrimination when asked about Communist connections.

Among them were the two principal officers questioned from the national committee: David Altmann, former executive secretary, and his wife, Emily, onetime treasurer. They reside at Englishtown, N. J.

TAX PROBLEMS AWAIT ACTION BY DEMOCRATS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Senate Republican floor leader, said Saturday any move to continue or increase the present 1 per cent sales tax would have to come from Gov. Leader.

With the governor and Democratic legislative leaders committed against that levy, it appeared that the sales levy will expire automatically at the end of this month.

"With the classified income tax out of the picture," said Mahany to a newsman, "it seems the only other broad-based tax available is the sales tax."

The Democratic-controlled House Ways and Means Committee would have to originate such a sales levy, he pointed out, adding:

"That means the Democrats, including the governor, would have to propose such a sales tax and pass it in the House before it reaches the Senate."

Senate Republicans laid to rest finally and irrevocably—the governor's proposal for a 411 million dollar classified income tax.

Income Tax Dead
The action by 26 Republican Senators on Friday ended all possibility that the classified income levy as passed by the House can be revived any more in the 1955 Legislature.

The Senate Republicans temporarily revived the levy they defeated the first time on Thursday night and then proceeded on Friday to vote it down again to preclude any further reconsideration under Senate rules.

Dent Is Conciliatory
Sen. John H. Dent, Senate Democratic floor leader, was conciliatory to Republicans as they knocked down the measure a second time.

"I would humbly beseech the Republican majority to discuss among themselves and their advisers this problem so that when we come back here next week we will get a suggestion on a sphere of taxation in which we can operate," said Dent.

"If we do, I am sure we will find the basis for some compromise."

The 411 million dollar gap in the governor's budget of $1,800,000,000 must be filled by some other tax measure, according to both Dent and Mahany.

Mahany said, before the Senate recessed until next Tuesday, that he and his GOP colleagues will meet to seek cuts in the budget.

He declared a 3 per cent sales tax with existing exemptions would adequately cover the state's expenses although he said any such proposal must come from the governor. Leader himself has said he would veto any sales tax to reach his desk.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. for actress Susan Ball at the Church of the Reformation in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale.

Miss Ball, 21, wife of actor Richard Long, died of cancer Friday. The services will be conducted by Dr. Louis H. Evans, minister-at-large for the Presbyterian Church.

Mother Returns With Vanished Daughter

NEW YORK (AP)—An Easton, Pa., mother arrived by plane from Rome early Saturday with her 8-year-old daughter, who disappeared last month from Easton and was returned to her mother in Sicily.

Mrs. Mary Dolores Germano, 31, and the daughter, Anita Lomonico, were met at Idlewild Airport by the woman's mother, Mrs. Michellina Germano, and a brother, Edward, 18. They left the airport by automobile for Easton.

The mother had been employed by the Emergency Refugee Relief Program in Italy. She and the child's father, Salvatore Lomonico, 39, Italian-born and a naturalized American, were divorced in 1952. Custody of the daughter went to the mother.

Anita disappeared last month while staying with her maternal grandparents in Easton. Authorities traced the father and daughter to Europe.

The U.S. embassy in Rome announced yesterday that mother and daughter had been reunited several days ago. A Rome magistrate issued an order that the father return the child to the mother.

9 AMERICANS, FOUR KOREANS HURT IN RIOTS

SEOUL (AP)—Nine American soldiers and four Koreans were reported injured in renewed Korean riots last night at Pusan against the neutral truce supervisors.

The U.S. 8th Army officially denied Korean police reports that U.S. guards bayoneted three Koreans in an earlier outbreak at Pusan Saturday.

Police said none of the 13 were reported seriously hurt today in the stone-throwing clash between demonstrators and U.S. soldiers guarding quarters of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission inspecting teams.

Police estimated some 30,000 Korean laborers milled through Pusan streets throughout last night.

Other demonstrations were reported at the west coast ports of Incheon and Kunsan.

South Korea's government awaited an answer, meanwhile, to its demand that all NSC teams get out of the country by Saturday.

Called Spies For N. Korea

The commission is composed of members from Switzerland and Sweden and pro-Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia. The ROK government charges the Pole and Czech members are spies for North Korea. It also wants the Swedes and Swiss to leave.

In a letter to the ROK government, the 8th Army asked its "cooperation for common objectives and not to resort to force or any violence," an ROK government source said.

The 8th Army in a release said reports that American military guards had bayoneted three Koreans in the Saturday Pusan rioting were false.

The 8th Army said six Americans were given dispensary treatment for slight injuries. It said they are military police Capt. Robert Paonessa, Chicago; Sgt. William D. Perry, Sandusky, Ohio; Sgt. I-C Clifford E. Griggs, Dubois, Pa.; Sgt. Joseph Dubberly, Bristol, Ga.; Sgt. I-C William Kelton, Drene, Miss., and Pfc. Eugene Dainey, Webster, S. D.

U. S. farmers used an average of 373 kilowatt hours of electricity in July, 1954. This is 46 more than in July, 1953.

Senator Dies Of Internal Hemorrhage

HARRISBURG (AP)—The death of Sen. Patrick J. Toole (D-Luzerne), who collapsed in the lobby of a Harrisburg hotel on Friday, was caused by internal hemorrhage.

D. John A. Fritchey, deputy Dauphin County coroner, listed the cause of death Friday night. The 53-year-old Toole had suffered at times from a liver ailment.

Death of the Luzerne lawmaker leaves the Senate Democrats with 23 votes compared to the Republicans' 26.

Toole's particular interest in the Senate was legislation dealing with the anthracite coal region. Active for many years in Luzerne County politics, he was elected to the upper chamber in 1948 and reelected in 1952.

The state election bureau said the election code provides that the presiding officer of the Senate, Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, issue a writ calling a special election to fill a vacancy.

The bureau said there was time for the special election to be held in connection with the November municipal elections.

In Memoriam 3
In loving memory of Mrs. Mervin Slaybaugh who passed away one year ago August 7, 1954.

On a hillside softly sleeping
Far away from care and pain
May she rest in Jesus keeping
For we hope to meet again.

Some may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile
But little do they know the loneliness
We have suffered all the while.

Some say time will heal an aching heart
But not that is not true
For one long year has passed

Threatens To Blast
New State Thruway

ALLENTOWN, Pa. — State police said today they will place no charges against an irritated Lehigh County farmer who says he intends to dynamite a township road and the Lehigh Valley Thruway.

The farmer, Henry J. Odenheimer, Allentown R. 3, made the threat Saturday after he barricaded the road. Odenheimer said he would do the blasting unless the state highway dept. settles land claim damages.

The department took eight of his 22 acres in constructing the thruway and rerouting the township road which now parallels the thruway.

The department reportedly offered $5,000 in settlement and Odenheimer asked for $75,000.

Officials who removed the barricade said they doubted Odenheimer planned to carry out his threat.

SAYS ADENAUER TRIP MAY SHOW SOVIET CHANGES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) says the forthcoming visit of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Moscow may demonstrate whether there is any "basic change" in Russian policies.

Adenauer has accepted a Russian invitation but no date has been set.

leader, told reporters before leaving for California that up to now "there hasn't been a single instance of softening of the Soviet's attitude" on major cold war issues as an outgrowth of the Geneva Big Four conference.

"The free world has had what might be called 'fringe benefits,' such as articles in Pravda and invitations for diplomats to visit the Russian Premier's summer home, but these don't change basic issues," he said.

"These things must not be mistaken for a major change in policy which has not yet materialized in the Soviet position."

Conditions Listed

Knowland said he would believe that basic change had come only if the Soviets proved themselves willing to release the satellite states, agreed to a disarmament plan with adequate inspection, approved a reunited, free Germany and gave "a firm demonstration that their policy of the world revolution and subversion of other countries had been terminated."

He said all of these issues should be before the Big Four foreign ministers in their proposed October conference. And he said Adenauer's visit to Moscow may tip the Russian attitude on some of them.

SHIVERS STILL OPPOSES ADLAI

CHICAGO (AP)—Texas' Democratic Gov. Allan Shivers hasn't changed his mind about opposing Adlai Stevenson as presidential timber.

"I will oppose the nomination of Mr. Stevenson for President in 1956," Shivers, one of the early arrivals for this week's Governors Conference, told a reporter yesterday.

"And should he be nominated, I will not support him."

Shivers, a shunned Democratic nominee Stevenson to support President Eisenhower in 1952.

"If the Democrats can bring forward a good man as a presidential nominee," he said, "a man who understands the problems of all sections of the nation, he will win."

Aged Sister Of Pope Pius Dies

ROME (AP)—Josephine Pacelli, 83-year-old sister of Pope Pius XII, died of pneumonia at her home here last night. She had been paralyzed for more than 20 years.

The 79-year-old pontiff, now at his summer home at Castel Gandolfo, was reported "very depressed" at his sister's death. He had been very close to her, prayed for hours for her yesterday and kept in constant telephone communication with her home during her last illness.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at the Church of St. Theresa.

Josephine Pacelli was the widow of the late Count Mengarini. In addition to the Pope, she is survived by a younger sister, Elizabetha Countess Rossiniani, a daughter and three grandchildren.

Another brother, Prince Francesco Pacelli, died 20 years ago after playing an important role in the reconciliation between the church and Mussolini.

Can't Find Berth For Old Flagship

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The USS Olympia will be scrapped unless a permanent berth for the historic ship is found soon, the chairman of the Committee for the Preservation of the Olympia said yesterday.

The ship, commanded by Commodore George Dewey in the Battle of Manila Bay during the Spanish-American War, is temporarily berthed at a city of Philadelphia pier. It had been scheduled for the wrecker's torches last month when the city volunteered the temporary berth.

Chairman Henry D. Learned of the preservation committee said the 27-year battle to preserve the cruiser as a historic shrine appeared near an end.

VETERAN EDUCATOR DIES

TREVORTON, Pa. — Funeral services will be held here tomorrow for Lindley Hoag Dennis, former deputy Pennsylvania superintendent of public instruction. He died in a Washington, D.C., hospital Friday at the age of 74.

He served with the Pennsylvania Department of Instruction from 1912 to 1933, becoming deputy superintendent in 1925.
